

Our Daily Joey Class Program:

- 7am Centre opens
- Mixed age group play with all children in the Possum room – free choice of activities
- 8.30am Pack away for group story.
Joeys transition outside for planned, play based and free choice of activities and socialising with the Koala class
Progressive morning tea occurs during this time
- 10am Transition to inside experiences including music and movement and activities based on the interests and needs of the children
- 11am Return outside for pre-lunch play
- 11.45am Lunch at the table with a focus on social interaction and healthy eating
- 12pm Rest Time
- 2pm Class regroups for afternoon tea, stories and inside play
- 3pm Transition outside to gross motor activities and play
- 3.30 - 4pm Older classes join for mixed age group play outside
- 5pm Mixed age group play inside with Possum and Joey children – stories, songs and late snack followed by free choice activities
- 6pm Centre closes

Our daily transitions are intentional, meaningful learning experiences that enrich our routines and support children's development, ensuring they are safely accounted for

This routine is a guide for children, families and educators and may vary depending on a variety of circumstances such as current interests, events and weather conditions